

Thirty Second Guide to Gimp

If you want to:	Do this:
Open Gimp	Find the Gimp icon in the Gimp folder in the Applications Folder
Create a New Image	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Under FILE on The Gimp menu, drag to NEW. Set the size of your canvas by choosing a template or setting the Width and Height in the drop down menus.  Choose Portrait or Landscape orientation.
Add a Background Pattern	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Click the Pattern icon in the Tools Window.  Drag the chosen pattern from the Layers, Channels, Paths window onto the image.
Use A Paintbrush	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Double Click on the paintbrush icon in the tools window.  Choose color by clicking on the color icon.  Choose brush characteristics from the Paintbrush window.  Double-click on image window to paint.
Work With an Image	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Under FILE, drag to OPEN. Choose the image.
Create Layers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use the Layers, Channels, Paths... Window Choose the Layers tab.  Click the New Layer icon.  Name the layer by double clicking on its name.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">

Enter Text.

- Create a new layer.
- Double the Text icon in the tools menu.
- Choose text characteristics from the Text Menu.
- Double click on the image. Enter the text into the Text Editor window.
- Change the text characteristics by highlighting the text in the Text Editor and using the Text Menu as above.
- Move the text by double clicking on the moving tool, then double clicking on the text.

Change Picture Characteristics

- Choose Tools from the image menu bar.
- Choose Color Tools.

